

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

Reviewers' club of this city, has received two requests to speak at the biennial in Los Angeles. The subjects proposed were "Traveling Libraries" and "The Consumers' League." Mrs. Jones has accepted the latter and will address the women of the general federation on "The Consumers' League from the Standpoint of a Western Woman."

The Poets' Round Table will meet with Mrs. W. H. Dale on Monday, Feb. 24 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. D. Spencer will be chairman and the poet will be Tenyson.

The Parliamentary club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at the club house. The last meeting was exceedingly satisfactory and the charter members of the club feel much encouragement over the interest shown.

There will be a meeting of the Pan-Hellenic Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Gorham.

Next Friday evening at Rowland hall, Mrs. Iglehart will continue her series of talks on great writers. The subject for the evening is "Stevenson—the Essayist, the Story Teller, the Man."

A' the next meeting of the Ladies' Literary club, which occurs next Friday, Mrs. Cowan will present a paper on "Municipal Ownership," and Mrs. Hicks will give a talk on Jacob Rits.

There will be no meeting of the home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club this week. The plan for the art rummage sale has been abandoned.

The Council of Jewish Women will hold a Bible study class next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the E. B. rooms. Rabbi Reynolds will lead the class.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 18, at the home of Mrs. Dunphy was held a most enjoyable as well as a most instructive meeting of the T. C. M. C. Mr. H. D. Folger, Jr. gave a well prepared paper on "Evolution," which was greatly enjoyed by all. The marked attention and hearty applause showed the appreciation of the members in whose minds will long live the thread of the discourse. The "topic cards," presented by Miss Ferguson, awakened much interest and furnished the subjects for several discussions. The programme for next meeting was then presented by the executive committee as follows:

Discourse on "Wireless Telephone" by Miss Sue Clark. "Current Topic Cards" prepared by the Misses Lambourn, piano solo by Professor J. A. Anderson. The club then adjourned to meet Tuesday, March 4.

Park City Clubs.

The Women's Athenaeum held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. F. R. Davis on Park avenue. The meeting was the last one at which the subject of Spanish law was discussed. The programme was as follows: Paper, "The Cortez; Glances at Spanish Law," Mrs. A. R. Weeter; paper, "Condition of Europe at the Commencement of Sixteenth Century," Mrs. Reich; paper, "Columbus and Inquisition," Mrs. Allen. After the business of the club was transacted it adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. G. Ralston on March 5. A special meeting of the club was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Shields. History of the club was the topic, together with a paper entitled "The Home as a School," by Mrs. C. Shields. The president of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Utah, a fine musical programme was given in connection with the papers.

Provo Clubs.

The Nineteenth Century club met with Mrs. W. B. Searle. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Searle, as both president and vice president were absent.

Fourteen members were present. Two papers were given, the first by Mrs. Bachman, "History of Education in Holland," the second, by Mrs. J. J. Nunn, "Arminius and Holland's Theological Toleration."

Sorensen held its meeting at the home of Mrs. S. A. King. Wednesday afternoon. The first paper of the programme was delivered by Mrs. Edna Houly, describing some of the royal palaces. Mrs. Zina Smith gave an interesting article on the "English House of Commons." After recess the news was reviewed by each member in answer to rollcall. Miss Alice Reynolds delivered the programme for the afternoon with a well edited paper dealing with the life of Lord Palmerston, and the battlefield through the energy of Florence Nightingale. Miss Bentha Bachman, a former member, was a guest of the club. The club adjourned to meet in one week with Mrs. S. A. King.

Ordan Clubs.

The Historical society met on Feb. 15 at the home of Mrs. Epperson. "England and the American Revolution" was relatively reviewed by Miss Jennie Pratt, concluding with this declaration: "By this war England lost a young and vigorous daughter, but now that time has erased animosities, she has in the United States a powerful, but still independent, friend."

Lake, and yet unlike, was the paper which followed by Mrs. Emily Booth on the "Causes of the Revolution," the causes being summarized in a very thorough manner.

The "tea" incident was tersely compared to the case of Mrs. Gump when "a teapot became the cause or occasion of a division between friends."

To give in a short synopsis of "Richard Carvel" a clear conception of that tale is a "deposition doth over," no little task. It fell upon Miss Vera Smith, who carefully brought out the various characters and conditions of colonial times, proving herself a very conscientious student.

It came the usual recreation, when the hospitality of the hostess was enjoyed, and thought found ready speech.

FOR SINGERS AND SPEAKERS.

The New Remedy For Catarrh is Very Valuable.

A Grand Rapids gentleman who represents a prominent manufacturing concern and travels through central and southern Michigan, relates the following regarding the new catarrh cure. He says: "After suffering from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach for several years, I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and immediately bought a package and was decidedly surprised at the immediate relief it afforded me and still more to find a complete cure after several weeks' use."

"I have a little son who sings in a boy's choir in one of our prominent churches, and he is greatly troubled with hoarseness and throat weakness, and on my return home from a trip I gave him a few tablets one Sunday morning when he had complained of hoarseness. He was delighted with their effect, removing all hoarseness in a few minutes and making the voice clear and strong."

"As the tablets are very pleasant to the taste, I had no difficulty in persuading him to use them regularly."

"Our family physician told us they were an antiseptic preparation of undoubted merit and that he himself had no hesitation in using and recommending Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for any form of catarrh."

"I have since met many public speakers and professional singers who use them constantly. A prominent Detroit lawyer told me that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets kept his throat in fine shape during the most trying season of the year, and that he had long since discarded the use of cheap lozenges and troches on the advice of his physician, that they contained so much toxic, potash and opium as to render their use a danger to the health."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges composed of cathartics, like Warburton's Blood Root, etc., and sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents for full treatment.

They act upon the blood and mucous membrane and their composition and remarkable success has won the approval of physicians, as well as thousands of sufferers from nasal catarrh, throat troubles and catarrh of stomach.
